

ODELL WILL MEET PLATT; "PRIVATE TALK," HE SAYS.

ODELL DROPS THE PLATT FAMILY.

Governor Coming Here To-Morrow, but Most of the Legislators Are on the Fence.

(Special to The Evening World.) ALBANY, March 22.—Republican legislators are running to cover everywhere as a result of the split between Gov. Odell and Senator Platt. There is a wholesale attempt to evade going to the Saturday conference in New York, and at the same time not give offense to the Governor by staying away. It came out to-day that the Governor will himself see Platt when he goes to New York to-morrow to attend the League Club dinner. "I shall very likely see Senator Platt when in New York, but my talk with him will be purely of a private nature," said the Governor today. Republican leaders are still feeling their way over the thin political ice. Here is what some of them said when asked if they were going to the conference. Senator Ellsworth—I shall go to New York some time next week. Senator Higgins—Yes, I am going to see Senator Platt. Senator Raines—I'm not going to New York. I had arranged to go elsewhere. Senator Malby—I've received no special invitation to go to New York. Assemblyman Kelley, Chairman Cities Committee—I don't know whether I'm going to New York or not. Assemblyman M. E. Lewis—I haven't given the matter any thought. Speaker Nixon went to Chautauqua

Senator Asks Why He Should Insist on a Police Bill Opposed by Leaders.

House and Senate are the ones who will have to determine finally whether a bill shall be enacted. "I have asked several of them to meet me Sunday. We will reach a conclusion then on the whole matter, and until that time I am not going to discuss the question." The Senator received today enough replies to his telegraphic summons for the Sunday conference to assure a good attendance. LITTLE BERTHA A WANDERER

Children's Society Notified After Mother Had Threatened Her. Bertha Meyer, fifteen years old, was found wandering about Liberty street, Brooklyn, at 2 o'clock this morning. Officer Halloran took her to the Adams street police station. The girl's mother, who lives at No. 3 Stone avenue, today demanded that she be sent to the Wayside Home. Ser. Kennedy would not consent to this, and the woman, after threatening the girl if she stayed out again at night, took her home. The Children's Society has been notified.

Tomorrow's Extraordinary Offerings of SHOES

We've done some remarkable shoe selling in our Bargain Shoe Stores, as most people in Greater New York well know. We've done greater things than ever before already this month; but we don't think we have ever quite equalled the offerings prepared for to-morrow—many of which are marked at

Just Half Price

Shoes for men and women at this radical concession; and very excellent and staple shoes for children at reductions not quite as great, but equally remarkable because so seldom obtainable under-price. The exact news follows:

These in the Men's Annex Store, Fourth avenue, southwest corner at Ninth street:

Boys' Tan Calf Shoes, 75c—

Titan calf—such as the United States Government selected for army shoes; durable and good shape; sizes 11 to 2. Larger sizes 2 1/2 to 5 1/2 cost $1, and this is just about half their value.

Men's $3 Shoes at $1.50—

These are stylish shapes, and include nearly all leathers; many sample lots and pairs. Most all sizes to start, and the average value is better than $3.

Men's $2 Shoes at $1—

Easter Novelties

Just off the ocean steamer. Made according to the ideas of that inventive genius that presides over our candy stocks. When he isn't planning a new extra palatable confection, he's busy with European toy makers, telling them how to produce new things to give sentiment to a gift of candy, or to decorate a table, or please the children.

Now come rabbits as a motive power. The little green and gold carts to which they're attached are to hold a prettily decorated egg, or a handful of candy. A unique toy or favor that will please little ones and big ones alike. Half a dozen sizes—10c to 75c. Made for us alone. Not to be found anywhere else.

Housefurnishings Priced So Cheaply

The sale continues with unabated interest. Rarely are first-class kitchen utensils and other housekeeping needfuls procurable for so little. The Venetian Ware—new perfect goods—is all marked at least a third below the regular prices. But it's going fast. Note your needs for the kitchen from this list:

4-quart Milk Boilers, $1.
2-quart Buckets, 25c.
10-quart Cook Pots, 82c; 12-quart, $1.
15-inch Roasting Pans, 45c.
4-quart Berlin Kettles, 38c.
4-quart Tea Kettles, 60c.
4-quart Covered Saucepans, 52c.

From this list, jot down the articles that spring house cleaning calls for. The savings are one-fourth and one-half—too big to be ignored. The refrigerators, too, are decided bargains.
